

Virtual Conference

Maximize your conference potential

A Virtual Conference allows you to engage your audience in a lively, convenient, and interactive forum. Group Jazz provides facilitation know-how combined with a variety of online tools to create a rewarding experience for you, your sponsors, and your conference attendees.

Features

Event Options

- Online payment and registration
- Live chat and recorded conference calls
- Attendee surveys and profiles
- Presenter Lounge for advance preparation
- Conference archive on CD-ROM for distribution to attendees and non-attendees
- Presentation preparation in HTML, RealMedia, PowerPoint, and other tools
- Integration with synchronous tools

Resource Center

- Organized speaker materials
- Glossary of terms to familiarize attendees new to the subject matter
- Online bookstore to showcase books by conference speakers or other resources

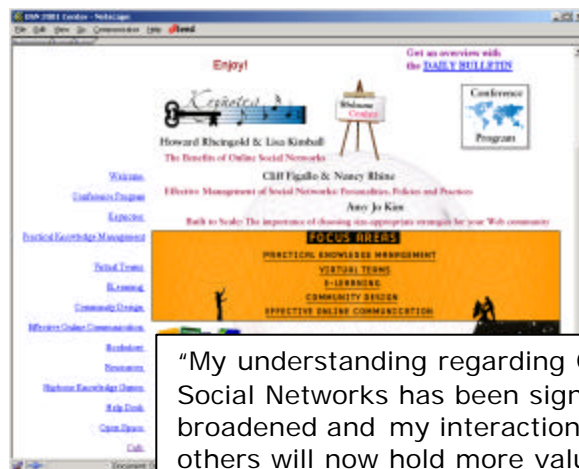

Café and Help Desk

- Informal networking
- Technical assistance

Benefits

Attendee Benefits

- Access ALL conference sessions
- Engage at their convenience
- Participate from any browser
- Time to provide thoughtful comments
- Interact with peers and presenters in topic-specific discussions
- No travel or accommodation expenses

“My understanding regarding Online Social Networks has been significantly broadened and my interactions with others will now hold more value, due to my participation here...”
- OSN2001 participant

Group Jazz supports the work of groups, whether they meet face-to-face, online, or both. Bringing together the best tools, technologies, media, and PEOPLE to produce great group experiences with powerful results. Group Jazz is a pioneer in the human and social aspects of online communities. Using a production process that includes social, management, and technical aspects, Group Jazz creates events that are both engaging and valuable for participants.

Contact Peter Ladd at 202.686.4848 or pladd@groupjazz.com to find out how Group Jazz can help your organization.